A Dream Come True:MLK Park
reopens with brand new facilities

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Martin Luther King Park in Bay St. Louis — closed for months due to massive renovations — reopened with a splash on Saturday, and closed the day’s activities with a literal bang, an elaborate fire-works display.

The new and improved park includes a massive splash pad, which area children tested out on Saturday, accompanied by a few officers of the Bay St. Louis Police Department.

“This splash pad is going to be well used,” Mayor Mike Favre said Saturday. “It’s going to give the kids not just of this community, but the entire city and neighbors and visitors coming to Bay St. Louis, a place to have fun.”

Ward 3 City Councilman Jeffrey Reed thanked all the volunteers, donors and business owners who have worked so hard over the past several months to renovate the park.

“The community is extremely excited” to have the park back in operation and better than ever, Reed said.

MLK Park Committee Chairman Lonnie Falgout said last week the park’s new facilities were “made possible by grants from Lowe’s Corporation, $50,000; the Seal Foundation, $30,000; Mississippi Power Foundation, $40,000; other donations from Powerhouse of Deliverance, Frigo Orthodontics, David Rush Contracting, Lightning Quick Signs, Elzy Concrete, Rodney Corr Contracting, Colt Fayard Construction, and many other contributors.”

The upgrades at the park include a brand new splash pad — paid

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church’s 38th annual Crab Festival kicked the Independence Day celebrations off in style last week, drawing thousands of participants over the three-day event despite some occasional heavy downpours.

“This has been a really good day,” Crab Fest volunteer Jerry West said

Friday evening. “Everybody loves the Crab Fest!”

For the second year in a row, West and fellow boiled crab booth workers aprons honoring the late Cayce Seal, a Bay St. Louis native and Entergy lineman who died last year after a tragic electrical accident.

Ezell prevails over Palazzo in congressional runoff

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

South Mississippi will have a new congressman — incumbent U.S. House Dist. 4 Rep. Steven Palazzo on Tuesday fell to Jackson County Sheriff Mike Ezell in the Republican primary runoff.

Ezell claimed about 54 percent of the vote district-wide on Tuesday night, taking four of six counties, and was the clear winner in Hancock County, besting Palazzo here by 2,094 votes to 1,737.

Hancock County Circuit Clerk Kendra Ne-caise said Tuesday that more people voted locally in Tuesday’s runoff than in the initial primary election earlier this month.

Palazzo was seeking

his seventh term, having first taken office in 2011. On the campaign trail, Ezell pointed to his record of “tackling corruption” as a sheriff, while Palazzo faced accusations that he misused campaign funds last year. Ezell will now face Democratic nominee Johnny DuPree and Libertarian candidate Alden Patrick Johnson in the November General Election

Crab Fest is OLG’s biggest fund raiser each year, raising thousands of dollars for its many outreach programs. Each year, thousands of people from all over the Gulf South come to feast on fresh seafood, enjoy carnival rides and listen to live music from entertainers such as the Chee Weez, Monsters at Large and Cat 6.

“Thank you to all the folks who came out to support our festival this year,” the Crab Fest committee posted on its Facebook page. “We are glad the weather cooperated so everyone could have a good time. See y’all next year!”

GENERAL MANAGER

People all over the Gulf South are hastily preparing their unibrows and flower crowns for this Saturday’s Frida Fest in Old Town Bay St. Louis, which just happens to coincide with the Old Town Merchants Association’s Second Saturday Artwalk.

Frida Kahlo de Rivera was a famed surrealist painter from Mexico who became a feminist icon nearly 40 years after her death.

Frida Fest, scheduled from 4-8 p.m. Saturday, is the brainchild of former Smith & Lens owners Ann Madden and Sandy Maggio, who founded the celebration in 2014.

The fest quickly took off, with dozens of Frida Kahlo enthusiasts vying to win the “Frida Be You & Me” Frida look-alike contest every year.

“Nuevo” for this year’s celebration -- the Frida 5Kahlo Fun Run at 8 a.m. Saturday, starting and ending at the Mockingbird Cafe, hosted by Bay St. Louis Running Company.

Throughout the day, many of the Old Town Bay St Louis Merchants will be hosting a variety of specials in celebration of the event, with Frida-themed events, contests and merchandise.

Registration for the look-alike contest is scheduled from 5-7 p.m. at the Mockingbird, with the contest scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Magnolia Antiques will host a “Best Baby Frida” contest at 4:30 p.m. There will be a Frida Look-Alike Pet contest on the front porch of Century Hall from 11 a.m. to noon. There is a $5 entry fee, and proceeds will go to Friends of the Animal Shelter.

Coastal Sights Exhibit to Adorn Art Gallery

SEA COAST ECHO

Coastal Sights come alive through the work of award-winning Hancock County-area watercolor artist Herb Willey.

Herb has recently been working on a technique that allows Watercolor art to be framed without matting and glass. Many of the new pieces in this show have been framed in this manner and will be publicly displayed here for the first time.

Herb is presently concentrating on the changes that have occurred with human attitude toward nature with the proliferation of cellphones and digital cameras. Look for his narrative interpretations in some of these pieces like “What Shrimp boat”.

The show opened last month and will be available through August 1 at the Moss Point Fine Art Gallery in the Pascagoula River Audubon Center located in Moss point at 5107 Arthur St.

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service.

Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display.

We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

"We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Bay St. Louis Native to Serve as Interim President for USM

GAZEBO GAZETTE

The Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning approved a transition plan for The University of Southern Mississippi at the meeting held earlier this month in Jackson. Earlier this year, President Rodney Bennett announced his plans to step down from the university before the end of his contract.

At the meeting, the Board approved a transition plan that includes Dr. Bennett continuing to serve as president of Southern Miss through July 15, 2022. Beginning July 16, Dr. Joe Paul from Bay St. Louis will begin serving as Interim President of The University of Southern Mississippi.

“The Board appreciates Dr. Bennett’s service to The University of Southern Mississippi,” said Trustee Tom Duff, President of the Board of Trustees. “He has many successes to his credit, including the recovery from the tornado that struck the Hattiesburg Campus just as he began his tenure as president, the university earning the distinguished R1 designation as a top-tier research university, significant improvements in both the facilities and the academic program-ten to any kind of constructive criticism. And it’s funny, those types will get mad at people who offer this criticism. Why do they have a problem with trying to make things better?

Fun fact: You can still respect and love people while holding them accountable at the same time.

It’s not always good to just give people a “free pass” simply because of what they do, who they’re related to, what church they go to, what political office they might hold, etc.

It’s also why I dislike nepotism. It creates problems that go unchecked and unresolved and tangible fears that go ignored.

It’s one of the reasons why I don’t participate in organized religion because the “Christians” don’t hold the sexual predators accountable. And please, save the not every pastor, priest, or youth minister, etc., isn’t like that argument. I’m sure there are good people, but that makes it all the more important for the “good” guy to stand up for the victims and call out the abusers.

With everything in life, I don’t think we should be afraid to stand up for things that are right, even if it means taking your favorite superhero down a notch.

Maybe they will learn and grow from their past transgressions as we all should be.

Sadly, history repeats itself, and many of the old prejudices and hate still simmer and affect people today. It’s like no one learned how to learn a lesson or two, and that’s nothing to be proud of.

And we often think, what can we do? We are but a speck of sand in this vast world.

So, call out the injustices you see happening around you, hold people in power accountable for their actions, try to hold yourself accountable, etc.

No one is perfect for sure, but we’re not headed in the right direction if we can’t call out injustice when we see it.

“See, people love that cozy feeling Supes give them...but if you knew half the (expletive) they get up to... (Expletive) diabolical. But then, that’s where I come in. To spank the (expletive) when they get out of line.” — Billy Butcher from “The Boys.”

consistently favorable mythology in America regarding mules. On the other hand, the father of every mule, the donkey, became the symbol of the Democratic Party in 1828 when Andrew Jackson incorporated the image of a donkey on campaign posters, because his political opponents repeatedly called him a ‘jackass.’

In summary, American means of transportation especially in the West was to a great degree wagons and mules. Mules were the animals that pulled the wagons on the Oregon Trail and towed the barges on canals in the northeast carrying freight and passengers between major cities. Mules in the north symbolized progress, achievement, and Yankee economic pride. Men and mules built a robust agrarian economy in the South. The advent of the tractor ended the Mule World. Subsequently, almost all of the mules were sold to dog-food factories. Feed crop acreage planted for mules and oxen were converted to cotton cash crop land. George Washington is considered the father of the American mule as well as the father of our country.

Naomi Nelson of Hancock County attended Mississippi Governor's School hosted by Mississippi University for Women June 5-18. MGS allows exceptional high school junior and senior students to learn many valuable skills. In addition, the students attended many interdisciplinary courses at The W's campus and engaged in fun activities that helped create fond memories and piqued their interests. This year MGS's theme was "Creating a Culture of Belonging," and the courses were geared around essential topics that supported the theme of this event.

Dr. Joseph S. Paul is well-known to the Southern Miss family. He served for 40 years as a University of Southern Mississippi student affairs administrator. Before becoming vice president for student affairs in February 1993, he held a variety of positions, including assistant director of student activities, assistant vice president and dean of student development. He also held faculty rank in USM's College of Education and Psychology.

Since his retirement from the university in 2015, he has held part time positions with the University Foundation as a fundraiser (2015-2016), as Citizen Service Coordinator for the City of Hattiesburg (2017-2020), as an Executive Coach for the Horne Business Advisor Group (2016-2020), and currently consults as an executive coach and strategic advisor for the Blue Hen Consulting Agency.

"I am honored to serve my alma mater as the IHL Board of Trustees completes its search for The University of Southern Mississippi's next permanent leader," said Dr. Paul. "I am eager to lead Southern Miss as we chase bold dreams, and I will be happy to return to chasing our grandsons once our next leader is on board. I am fully confident the IHL Board of Trustees will identify a dynamic leader as our 11th Southern Miss President. Our role is to ready the ship, so that the next president finds an institution in good order, energized, and poised for this pivotal transition. I will pursue those ends with full vigor."

Beyond his work at Southern Miss, Paul has presented seminars and training in management and leadership for business, industry, and education. He was a senior consultant with The Atlanta Consulting Group, a Fortune Top 50 management consulting firm. Clients Paul has worked with include UPS, RJR Nabisco, Ohio-Edison, Stennis Institute, US Navy, Accenture, and Horne CPA Health care group.

Paul holds a Ph.D. in administration of higher education from the University of Alabama and was named the university's Most Outstanding Doctoral Student in the field in 1985.

The Bay St. Louis native earned a bachelor's degree in communication and political science from USM in 1975, graduating magna cum laude from the University Honors College, and received a master's degree in communication and management from Southern Miss in 1978. He was inducted into the University of Southern Mississippi Alumni Hall of Fame in 2000.

Among many civic activities Paul has served two terms as president of the United Way of Southeast Mississippi. He has served as Board Chairman for the greater Hattiesburg Area Development Foundation and as a Board Trustee for the Mississippi Public Employees Retirement System.

Additionally, Paul has also been president of the Hattiesburg Area Education Foundation, on the Board of Directors for the Hattiesburg Boys and Girls Club and has been a trustee for the Hattiesburg Public School District. He is co-founder of the Hattiesburg Leadership Pinebelt program and has served on a statewide basis in leadership positions with the Mississippi Economic Council.

Paul and his wife Meg reside in Hattiesburg, MS and are active members of Trinity Episcopal Church. They have two grown children and two grandsons.

"I encourage all of our constituencies to join me in thanking President Rodney D. Bennett for his leadership at Southern Miss," said Dr. Paul.

The Influence of Place in our Lives

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

Recent lectures at The Monteagle Assembly in Tennessee have awakened an awareness of the crucial importance of “place” in our lives. Professor Tom McCullough, currently of Coastal Carolina University and also professor emeritus at Center College in Kentucky, provided the feature lectures for the week. Dr. McCullough is a highly regarded archaeologist and theologian who brings unique and wise insights into ways that the reverence of ancient people for their land can inform us today. One significant quote from Dr. McCullough is as follows: “Place shapes us, and we shape place.”.

This insight certainly applies to the life of Jesus. He was a Galilean, in Israel. His life was clearly shaped by the place in which he lived. He most certainly shaped his place, and his teaching has shaped much of the world. It continues to do so today. His place was marked by great poverty, occupation by the hated Roman government, and the tremendous limits on personal freedom which characterized much of their lives.

The story is recorded in the Gospels. In Luke we are told of a decree from the government that “All the world should be registered”. This decree required that citizens must return to their place of origin to complete the registration. This accounts for the tradition that Jesus was born in Bethlehem. His birth took place in a stable “because there was no room for them in the inn”. The life of Jesus was clearly shaped by the place of his birth and by his upbringing in Nazareth. His life shaped that place as well as much of the world, even to the current time.

The truth is that all of us are impacted by our places, and our places truly do shape the direction of our lives. It is well known that those of us who live in the deep south are affected by the warm, humid climate which results in somewhat slower and deliberate lifestyles. People in the busy and highly populated northeastern cities tend toward greater intensity. People in coastal areas trend to a more “laid-back” way of life. Mountain folk often are more independent in their thinking. The west coast seems to produce those who are willing to push boundaries. All of these differences are influenced, at least in part, by the places which are inhabited.

While none of this is news, what is important is the recognition that our lives are greatly impacted by the environment in which we live.

We have a responsibility not only to be aware of our place, but also to do what we can to shape the place in ways which are beneficial to others. That is exactly what Jesus understood, and he devoted his life to using that understanding to challenge the injustices of his own place and time.

This remains the calling of spiritual institutions. It is not enough to complain about problems. We have an obligation to build a better world. It is both a privilege and a duty. May we embrace it with faith.

Meet Winnie, a sweet, 2 year old American Staffordshire Terrier mix. Her coat is beautiful, and when the sun shines upon her, the burnished copper highlights shine through, just like her lovely smile. This pretty girl may appear shy at first meeting, but she actually really loves attention from people. All that Winnie wants is to sit in your lap and get all the cuddles she possibly can. It may be that she's not used to life at the shelter, and has spent her past life with her family binge watching TV. It seems like Winnie would be right at home by your side on the sofa, sharing good times and snuggles. Winnie is waiting to win your heart, but she may take some time so get comfy enough to totally relax and enjoy. Can you be the patient adopter she is looking for? If you'd like to see this beauty in person, please stop by during our visiting hours Mon-Fri 10am-4pm (Tues 12pm-4pm) to meet her. Good help is hard to find. When you find those men and women who are eager to work, and have a good attitude, it's nice to reward them. Enter Corbin Altese and Cade Hurst. Both in their early twenty's, These young go getters have been fishing with us for many years. We have known them and their parents even longer. The past year or so, they have been helping us a bunch, out at the Cat Island house for our overnight multi-day trips. On the rare occasions we have time, room and good weather, we try to get them out fishing with us.

Recently we had gotten in early from a corporate group we were hosting. Since they had done all their work, and Capt Kenny had the lunch duties covered, I offered them a quick fishing trip. They didn't turn it down.

Once we got set up, the boys went straight to work. Corbin was launching a popping cork rig and Cade opted for a right lined Carolina rig. These two are deadly with a fishing rod, so I pretty much just baited hooks and netted fish. Happy to say they kept me busy with some big speckled trout. The entire time we were out, all they really talked about, was hunting and fishing. It was just like I was, 20 something years ago. I doubt those two will ever loose their love of the outdoors.

It's long days out at the island, and the work isn't always pretty. These two never complain, and are always ready to get their hands dirty. It's a been a real treat having these two working with us. I like to think Fishing with them is just as much for us as it is for them.

As always, have fun and be safe.

DWGAN Golfing News from May 2022

BY SHIRLEY HALTERMAN

The merry month of May began on the 3rd with our Annual Scotch Doubles competition. This format is usually played in April but inclement weather caused it to be rescheduled to early May. Twenty-two couples showed up to see who would be the most compatible on the Diamondhead golf course. The group retired to one of the Clubs ballrooms to await the results of the competition. The Low Gross 1st Place winning couple with a team score of 92 was Therese and Eddie Mauterer. In 2nd Place with a team score of 93 were Liz and Charles Bell followed by Betty and Scott Lyons scoring 94. The Low Net winning teams in this competition were: 1st Place with a low net score of 71 - Nancy and Tom Sislow. Coming in 2nd Place were Pauline and Mark Singer with a score of 72 and in 3rd Place - Jerry and Chuck Ingraham scored 73. This is always a fun format and a good test of personal relationships.

On the following Tuesday, May 10th, we played a Two-Person Alternate Shot game on the front nine holes of the Cardinal course. In this format the two person teams choose who will tee off on the even or odd numbered holes. After each hole tee off, the other player plays the next shot and shots alternate thereafter. Awards were given for the first five place teams. The First Place Winning Team was composed of Cathy Gesell and Audrey Ramirez. Beryl Laird and Judy Tauzin came in Second Place. Third Place was achieved by Susie Fontenot and Sue Hebert. Fourth Place honors went to the team of Shirley Halterman and Betty Perry. And, finally in Fifth Place the team of Jerry Ingraham and Therese Mauterer.

Tuesday, May 17th, found us playing a "Blind Holes" format. The Blind Hole scores are then deducted from the final score. If you only knew which were the blind holes before playing. The Low Net

While searching for a retail location to set up shop, Jane and her husband, Walter, fell in love with Old Town Bay St. Louis. In 2019 Jane Evans Designs opened its door in the heart of Old Town inside The Shops of Century Hall. Jane currently sells her collections to 18 stores across the county. The artist's stunning silver and gold-leaf handcrafted ornaments range from designs of LSU's Tiger Stadium to Bay St. Louis's Bay Bridge, from crowns to crosses, from bunnies to portraits of Frida Kahlo. Jane Evans Designs' collection also features a variety of unique, ceramic turtle and crab shells. Many of the pieces are decorated with sheets of gold-

In celebration of their Hot Spot status on July 9th, Jane Evans Designs will be featuring live music by Bradley Bones and serving refreshments from 4pm-7pm. Out on the porch of The Shops of Century Hall, a table of beautiful butterfly ornaments created by Jane will be available for purchase by shoppers and Frida Festers alike. "Ruth roots just touched my heart when I saw it for the first time a few years ago," said Jane. Jane Evans Designs will be accepting donations for the garden as well as donating all of the proceeds from the butterfly ornaments to Ruth's Roots.

Finally in the Fourth Flight the winners were: Cathy Gesell with 18, Delores Louvier with 20, and Carole Griffin with 22.

Beryl Laird had a Birdie on Hole #6 while five of our gals had Chip-Ins: Judi Brannan on Hole #5, Susie Fontenot on Hole #2, Kathy Jones Aldo on Hole #2, Beryl Laird on #6 and Therese Mauter on #7. Great job gals!

“Free Throw” was the name of the game on May 24th. This team format allows for each player on the team to, at one point, throw the ball rather than hitting it with a golf club. This is not as easy as you might think.

ProShop Score Keepers: Richard & Maury

It is actually difficult to throw a golf ball very far and the shot very often is best used on the green instead of a putt. The First Place winning team was composed of Brigitte Becker, Liz Bell and Sylvia Corban. In Second Place was the team of Pattie Blackwood, Jeanne Hudgins and Kim Knight. Brigitte Becker had a Chip-In on Hole #9.

On the fifth Tuesday of May, the game was a Match Play format. Match Play is a format where you and your partner play against an opposing duo in a head-to-head match. Marilyn Galus and Jeannie Hudgins having no opponents played against Par and lost. Toni Rossol and Judy Tauzin played against Betty Perry and Susie Fontenot with Betty and Susie winning. The next group was made up of Brigitte Becker and Sue Hebert versus Nancy Sislow and Pat VanDervort with Nancy and Pat winning the match. The fourth competition was between Pauline Singer and Lenna Weisenhorne against Dolores Louvier and Mary Mizell. Dolores and Mary were the victors in this match. And our final match was between Kim Knight and Dinah Knobloch playing against Pattie Blackwood and Sylvia Corban. The winners in this match were Pattie and Sylvia. Susie Fontenot scored a Birdie on Hole #17 on the Cardinal course.
